

PERSONALS.

H. H. Bausher, Louis Kitzer, Charles Murphy and George Booker, all of Chicago, arrived at the "Colonial" Saturday.

Fred Johnson of Lunenburg spent Sunday with relatives in town.

G. K. Harrington and family soon go to Boston to live where Mr. Harrington has a position. Mr. Harrington will be greatly missed in the musical circles of the town for he is an accomplished musician. During his residence in town he has ably assisted the band and played in Young's orchestra.

Mrs. Charles C. Stenson returned last week from a visit in Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. A. M. Lang is visiting relatives in Bradford.

Leon Batchelder of New York City is spending a short time with his father, J. Wesley Batchelder.

Mrs. C. F. Gibbs and daughter are visiting in Boston for a short time and will also visit in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Hastings of Ludlow are visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Underwood have gone to St. Louis to see the fair.

Mrs. William Parks of Leeds, P. Q., who has been visiting relatives here, returned to her home yesterday.

Mrs. W. J. Lowry and brother, Isaac Johnson, of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of Barre, Mrs. E. B. Clapp and Hamilton Johnson of Hardwick were called here last week by the illness of Mrs. Mary Johnson who is now slowly recovering.

Mrs. J. W. Farr of East Hardwick visited her son, Wilbur J. Farr, last week.

Joseph G. Couillard is spending the week in Lyndonville taking charge of the branch store of J. C. Stevens during the absence of Charles Stevens at St. Louis.

Scott Welsh has finished his work in Spaulding Brothers' store and gone to Northfield where he has a position in a drug store.

Dr. C. A. Cramton is moving into his new house this week.

Miss Eva Porter has concluded her work at F. O. Clark's store and Mrs. F. C. Perley is taking her place for the present.

Miss Nellie Phipps, who has been in St. Johnsbury for the past few months, returned to Burlington, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Coombs of Sherbrooke were recent visitors of his brother, William Coombs.

Miss Gertrude McRae of Cookshire, Canada, is spending some time with friends here.

Miss Pauline Lynn is visiting at her uncle's, W. S. Lynn, in Sherbrooke.

J. H. Humphrey, for 11 years supervisor of music in the Burlington public schools and a former resident here, has entered the employ of the Equitable Insurance company, with headquarters at Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillman H. Kent have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Florence Adelaide, to Fred Dunton Pierce of Barton, the wedding taking place October 18. The friends of both extend congratulations.

Mrs. H. D. Rogers of Waverly, Mass., is visiting friends and relatives in town.

Mrs. Harry E. Harden attended the funeral of a relative in Holland yesterday. Charles W. Fitch and Miss Flora Emma Sheridan of Lunenburg were married at St. Aloysius' parsonage Thursday morning, by Rev. T. J. Leonard.

Misses Mildred Libby of Boston and Luella Tewksbury of North Haverhill, are guests of Miss Rebecca A. Burton.

A. Frank Hill leaves Monday for Toronto, to enter the Ontario veterinary college.

Misses Carrie Nichols and Nina Hobbs of Hardwick spent Sunday with friends and relatives in town.

Miss Iola Brown spent Sunday with relatives in Sheffield.

Mrs. C. L. Ward of North Danville is visiting relatives in town.

Carl E. Hooker spent the past week in Boston and Portland on business.

Miss Anne B. Carr is spending the month with friends in White River Junction and vicinity.

Mrs. Harriet E. Frost has returned from a summer spent in Boston harbor on the floating hospital for children and is now engaged in her professional work at Newport.

Rev. and Mrs. C. R. B. Dodge, O. H. Henderson and Miss Isabel Henderson, Mrs. S. J. Dudley and Rev. Robert L. Dunton attended the Baptist convention at Newport last week.

Our St. Johnsbury contingent left for Montpelier yesterday. Besides Senator-elect Slack and Representative-elect Ricker, Editor Walter goes as secretary of civil and military affairs, James L. Miner as doorkeeper and J. W. Sault as official reporter in the House.

Fred L. Woodbury is attending the Fair at St. Louis and will be absent from here about a month in the west and south.

Miss Margaret Ely has gone to Brooklyn for a three months' visit with her sister, Mrs. George W. Kyburg. Master Henry Kyburg, who has spent part of the summer here, returned with her.

Joseph Fairbanks returned Thursday to resume his course in the Harvard Law School at Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. George M. Gray and Miss Mary E. Ide leave today for Manila where they will visit their uncle, Vice Governor Ide and his daughters for some time. They sail from San Francisco Oct. 13 on the big steamer "Mongolia" of the Pacific Mail Line, one of the two largest ships on the Pacific ocean. The boat touches at Honolulu and Yokohama and at the latter port they will be joined by Misses Annie and M. J. J. Ide, who have been in the flower kingdom and will return to Manila with them.

Major N. P. Bowman expects to start for California, Monday. Mrs. Thomas Bowman and daughter Eunice, who have been at his home here for the past few months will return with him and he will spend the winter at his son's home.

Mrs. Walter A. Pierce and daughter Marguerite of Malden, Mass., who is spending this week at her sister's, Mrs. Horace E. White, expects to return home Oct. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Shuler of Boston spent Sunday with the latter's cousin, Mrs. Arthur P. Stone.

G. C. Rocheleau has gone to the Columbia College of Pharmacy in New York City.

Joseph St. Jock spent part of the past week in Boston on business.

Mrs. M. A. Wade and Miss G. S. Leisenring of Ellis, Kansas, have returned to their home after a visit here with relatives.

Charles H. Horton, 2d., of Westfield, Mass., is spending the week here at Swift & Co.'s office and visiting his parents.

Mrs. C. J. Breakwood of Whitefield is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. L. W. Dean, who has been seriously ill, is recovering.

Among the lawyers from here who are attending Essex county court at Guildhall are Harland B. Howe, Robert Simonds, Elisha May and Harry Blodgett.

Miss Sadie Morrison of Littleton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Turner.

Warren Fairbanks spent Sunday with friends in Walden.

Mrs. E. S. Smith and son Ralph spent last week with friends in Littleton.

Thomas Laffie, the boy who was injured by the accidental shooting last week, is recovering as rapidly as can be expected.

Edward Parker of Bradford spent Sunday with friends in town.

Edward Smythe has returned from the New Mount Washington House, where he has been working during the past summer.

Miss Emma Lavigne is seriously ill with a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Clarence W. Plummer of Lakeport, N. H., visited relatives and friends in town last week.

Mrs. Nellie M. Richardson of Lynn, Mass., is visiting Mrs. George F. Miner, who is in poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Goss are spending the week in town with relatives. Mrs. Goss was formerly Miss Elizabeth McLeod and they were married at Lewiston, Tuesday, September 27.

They will reside in West Somerville, Mass., and the many St. Johnsbury friends of the bride extend congratulations and best wishes.

W. H. Gorham returned Saturday to Boston where he continues his studies in the Eric Pape art school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carrick spent the past two weeks in Dorchester, Mass., with relatives.

Miss Delia I. Griffin left yesterday for St. Louis, to attend the fair.

Mrs. Kate C. Moore and family will move into the Dr. C. F. O. Tinker house on Main street about the middle of this month, and continue it as a boarding house.

Fred Pierce of Barton spent Friday in town with friends.

Miss Gracia Balch entertained the young ladies of the senior class of the Academy at her home Friday evening. The evening was spent in games and refreshments were served.

Charles F. Murray of New York city, superintendent of the ordinary department of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., was in town part of last week on business.

Arthur L. Stevens was confined to the house part of the past week by illness.

Ralph Merrill spent Sunday in Sheffield with friends.

W. J. Ahern of White River Junction has entered the local New England telephone office as collector.

Miss Lena Lang of Littleton is visiting friends in town.

Miss Antoinette Lanctot spent Sunday with relatives in Newport.

M. E. McClary spent Sunday at his home in Greensboro.

Mrs. R. A. Childs of Bradford spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. George Hicky.

B. I. Staples has resigned his position at the store of Lougee & Smythe after six years of service there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Eaton of Bradford are in town for some time.

Daniel T. Gilman has gone to Missouri to purchase a carload of horses.

Mrs. Jane Emery went to Concord, N. H., Monday where she will remain during the winter.

Miss Bertha Ransom spent Sunday at her home in East Hardwick.

Mrs. B. F. Rollins went to Portland, Me., Monday for an extensive visit.

Thomas Picord has gone to Laconia, where he has a position.

A. L. Bailey is in New York on business.

Arthur Chaffee of Portland, Me., spent Sunday with his parents in town.

At the annual meeting of the W. H. M. S. of the Vermont Conference to be held at St. Albans October 26 and 27, addresses are to be made among others, by Mrs. H. N. Turner, and by Mrs. W. S.

Smithers of Waterbury, formerly of St. Johnsbury.

Miss Helen Sinclair Patterson has done some very clever work in a new book "A Book of Little Boys," which has just been published by Houghton, Mifflin & Company and written by Helen Dawes Brown. Miss Patterson is now one of the regular artists for the Riverside Press publications.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Desrochers and Mrs. Albert Desrochers were in Manchester, N. H., Friday, to attend the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Beaudoin which was celebrated there that day. Mr. and Mrs. Beaudoin were formerly residents of this town.

Mrs. Rosa Pennell, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bailey for some time, returned to her home in Washington, D. C. Saturday.

Miss Blanche Whiting is at her home in Warren, N. H., confined to the house by illness.

Joseph McCarty of Barre and Charles Story of North Concord have entered the employ of J. E. Walker in his granite sheds.

Fred Flint returned yesterday from a vacation spent with his sister, Mrs. Earnest Clark, in New York City.

Misses Nettie and Nellie Knight of Franconia, N. H., visited Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bingham part of the past week.

Mrs. William C. Tyler is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Jencks, at Sherbrooke.

Prof. and Mrs. Henry Fairbanks leave the last of the week for Grinnell, Ia., to attend the annual meeting of the American Board, of which Mr. Fairbanks is a corporate member. Later they will attend the National Council at Des Moines, Ia.

William D. Brown was called to Burlington yesterday by the death of his brother, James M. Brown. The latter had been a trained nurse and later a drug clerk and was 36 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert French leave next Monday for the St. Louis Exposition.

Crawford Ranney attended the meeting of the Reece Button Hole Machine Co., at Boston, last week, at which the regular quarterly dividend was declared.

Mrs. Cyrus Welch of Groton has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Balch, the past week.

Mrs. C. H. Lingham and two children of Newton Highlands, Mass., are spending a few weeks at Crawford Ranney's. Mr. Lingham spent Sunday here.

Rev. Charles S. Hager of Hyde Park was a visitor to town yesterday.

Governor-elect and Mrs. C. J. Bell of Walden were here yesterday, en route to Montpelier.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bingham go to Brattleboro today, where Mr. Bingham attends a meeting of the State Board of Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Denison Brown of Northfield are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Adams.

Hiram Gorham, who spent the summer in town, returned Friday to his home in Tennessee.

Charles F. Ranney, for many years the leading job printer at Newport, has been admitted to the customs service and will be stationed at Beecher Falls.

W. L. Jacobs, editor and proprietor of the Barton Monitor, has sold out his paper and job office to Wallace H. Gilpin of Westfield.

The Castleton public library has received a bequest of $500, together with one year's interest on the same, to be known as the Russell M. Wright Memorial Fund. The income is to be used for purchasing books.

late Vermont News.

Charles F. Ranney, for many years the leading job printer at Newport, has been admitted to the customs service and will be stationed at Beecher Falls.

W. L. Jacobs, editor and proprietor of the Barton Monitor, has sold out his paper and job office to Wallace H. Gilpin of Westfield.

The Castleton public library has received a bequest of $500, together with one year's interest on the same, to be known as the Russell M. Wright Memorial Fund. The income is to be used for purchasing books.

late Vermont News.

Charles F. Ranney, for many years the leading job printer at Newport, has been admitted to the customs service and will be stationed at Beecher Falls.

W. L. Jacobs, editor and proprietor of the Barton Monitor, has sold out his paper and job office to Wallace H. Gilpin of Westfield.

The Castleton public library has received a bequest of $500, together with one year's interest on the same, to be known as the Russell M. Wright Memorial Fund. The income is to be used for purchasing books.

late Vermont News.

Charles F. Ranney, for many years the leading job printer at Newport, has been admitted to the customs service and will be stationed at Beecher Falls.

W. L. Jacobs, editor and proprietor of the Barton Monitor, has sold out his paper and job office to Wallace H. Gilpin of Westfield.

The Castleton public library has received a bequest of $500, together with one year's interest on the same, to be known as the Russell M. Wright Memorial Fund. The income is to be used for purchasing books.

late Vermont News.

Charles F. Ranney, for many years the leading job printer at Newport, has been admitted to the customs service and will be stationed at Beecher Falls.

W. L. Jacobs, editor and proprietor of the Barton Monitor, has sold out his paper and job office to Wallace H. Gilpin of Westfield.

The Castleton public library has received a bequest of $500, together with one year's interest on the same, to be known as the Russell M. Wright Memorial Fund. The income is to be used for purchasing books.

late Vermont News.

Charles F. Ranney, for many years the leading job printer at Newport, has been admitted to the customs service and will be stationed at Beecher Falls.

W. L. Jacobs, editor and proprietor of the Barton Monitor, has sold out his paper and job office to Wallace H. Gilpin of Westfield.

FOR SALE—High quality Quaker Gem cook stove, large size, good as new, used only 16 months; 2 to 3 cords old growth rock maple and beech 16 in. black wood, bone dry; 5 to 8 tons good hay; 1 large refrigerator. All cheap for cash. If sold before Oct. 10th. Enquire 46 Portland street.

FURNISHED ROOMS TO LET, 16 Webster street. Apply to Walter C. Roddick.

A MEDIUM SIZED safe for sale. L. S. Hooker, 26 Cliff street.

TO RENT—The J. C. Moore store, store house and barn, either as a whole or in part. Enquire of Mrs. E. E. Sargent or on the premises.

SECOND HAND Boynton furnace for sale. C. C. Bingham, aged 79 years, a former resident of Waterford.

WANTED At once, a man to engraving, clock work, and jewelry repairing including hard solder work. Must be a good workman, and furnish satisfactory references. A good salary and permanent position with a chance for advancement to the right party. Address, Bogle Brothers, White River Junction, Vt.

FOR RENT—TYPEWRITER, A. H. Barbour.

FOR SALE—By Chase Bros. of Passumpsic, two pair of work horses weighing 2500 and 2600 pounds; in fine condition.

Births.

At Greensboro, Sept. 30, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Brown.

At South Wheelock, Oct. 1, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Justin Heath.

Marriages.

At East Barre, Sept. 28, Glenn Adams and Miss Mary Kendall.

At Lewiston, Me., by Rev. Percival F. Marston, Arthur M. Goss of Lewiston and Miss Elizabeth McLeod of St. Johnsbury.

At St. Johnsbury, Sept. 29, by Rev. T. J. Leonard, Charles W. Fitch and Miss Flora E. Sheridan, both of Lunenburg.

At St. Johnsbury, Sept. 28, by Rev. J. M. Frost, Pearl W. Blodgett and Miss Ethel M. Aldrich.

Deaths.

At Rockford, Minn., March 8, of pneumonia, Mrs. Sarah Burbee, aged 79 years, a former resident of Waterford.

At Peacham, Oct. 3, Mrs. Paul Ferguson, aged 63 years, 9 months.

At Tunbridge, Sept. 14, Mrs. Sarah A. Sangerson, formerly of Concord, aged 84 years.

At Cabot, Sept. 8, Miss A. E. Connor.

At Lyndon, Sept. 28, Mrs. Miranda Welch, aged 63 years and 8 months.

MILLINERY OPENING.

Miss Annie O. Maloney will hold her opening of Ready-to-wear Hats next Wednesday. Watch for date of second opening.

MISS LUELLA MERRILL. Teaching Pianos, Organ and Harmony. New England Conservatory Graduate. 2 Western Avenue, St. Johnsbury.

Women Who Smoke are not as common as some folks believe. WOMEN WHO BUY CIGARS for husband, brother and sweetheart can always find the best brands here.

F. N. BROWN & SON. Main Street.

Drill Wells for your Neighbors

We can start you in a paying business on small capital. Machines easy and simple to operate. Write for free illustrated catalogue and full information.

Star Drilling Machine Co. Office: 104 Fulton St., N. Y. Factory: Akron, O.

Plants and Ferns

Full line Fall Bulbs, Hyacinths, Tulips, Easter Lillies, etc.

SAINT JOHNSBURY GREENHOUSES.

JAMES BURNS, Prop'r

H. R. LEIGHTON & CO.

Bankers and Brokers. 246 WASHINGTON ST., 69 DEVONSHIRE ST., BOSTON, MASS.

Service by special wire. Special attention given to high grade investment securities. Commission orders promptly executed in all markets.

MARGIN ACCOUNTS carried on a conservative basis. Special department of information under expert direction. Daily and weekly market letters and special reports sent on request.

BRANCH OFFICE AVENUE HOUSE, Rooms 20-22, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Phone, 6 D Citizens. 38-4 N. E. Tel. All business strictly confidential.

I Understand that the SANTA FE will sell one-way Colonist Tickets to until October 15 at very low prices.

CALIFORNIA

$33 from Chicago and proportionate rates from other points.

Please advise full particulars.

I am going to.....

Name.....

Street No.....

City and State.....

Cut this out and mail to S. W. Manning, Gen. N. E. Agt., The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Ry., 332 Washington St., Boston.

Get What's Right.

The surest way to get what's right in young men's clothes is to come here and buy the stylish attire we sell bearing the label. It is an extremely easy matter to buy good clothes if you know just how to go about it.

XTRAGOOD

One experience with these garments will serve to correct any prejudice you may feel against ready-for-service dress.

Whatever we sell you is guaranteed in every way.

We wish every young man in this community would make it a point to visit this store and see for himself the unusual excellence of these clothes.

Prices, $8.75 to $15.

MOORE & JEWETT,

Avenue House Block,

St. Johnsbury, Vermont.

Grand Autumn Opening

—OF—

Millinery, Furs and Garments,

Thursday, Friday and Saturday,

October 6, 7 and 8, 1904.

Everybody is invited and urged to come.

Realizing the fact that there are several openings of Millinery and New Fall Goods on these dates, we have made special effort to make our store attractive and we know we have a great variety of the very latest things to show you.

MAKE OUR STORE YOUR HEADQUARTERS.

E. L. HUNT & CO.

Did You Say Children's Winter Dresses?

Our first Fall invoice has just been placed on our counters and comprises some of the newest, and prettiest styles to be found for children from 3 to 14 years of age. They are made full and roomy with wide hem on skirt and you cannot do better than fit out the young Miss either with a dress of becoming plaid or plain Cashmere with fancy silk combination. Think of a pretty Scotch plaid dress, lined throughout and neatly trimmed for 75 cents. Others at 1.00, 1.25, 1.50 to $3.50 each.

THESE SAME CHILDREN